Involvement Opportunities

Involvement takes many forms at CFU and has countless benefits. Every opportunity has the potential to help you learn new skills and develop as an individual. The Center for Leadership and Involvement works with campus departments to make sure you have many options to choose from within your major and areas of interest. Whether you want to join a student organization, partake in an internship, or play a sport, CFU will give you the resources for success. Check out some of these excellent on-campus involvement resources!
